

Terms & Conditions!

Professional Disclaimer

Karen Scott Reflexology DOES NOT claim to diagnose or to cure any medical condition. The information provided on the website, express or implied, is for the purposes of information only and is NOT given as professional medical advice, a means of diagnosis or treatment, nor is it intended to be a substitute thereof.

If you have a health problem, medical emergency, or a general health question, Karen Scott Reflexology will always recommend you should consult your doctor prior to any treatment.

The services and/or products provided by Karen Scott Reflexology and are not intended to treat, cure or diagnose any medical conditions.

It is against the advice of Karen Scott Reflexology to discontinue any medical treatment or advice currently being administered by qualified Medical Practitioners.

All testimonials are given freely by existing clients and the contents and meaning of the original testimonials have not been altered, except on occasions when the testimonial formed part of a larger letter, in which case the text may have been shortened to accommodate the website. Signed copies of all the original and full testimonials are kept on file with full contact details of each client provided.